The BC Museums Association Conference is held on the traditional lands of the Songhees and Esquimalt First Nations. We are grateful for the opportunity to live and learn here in mutual respect and appreciation.*

HAPPY 60TH ANNIVERSARY TO THE BC MUSEUMS ASSOCIATION

Happy Birthday BCMA! 60 years of conferences, quite an accomplishment.

Welcome to the 2017 BC Museums Association conference - Climate for Change: How Museums are Meeting the Challenges of a Changing World. And welcome to gorgeous Victoria. While here, check out the latest exhibitions at the Bateman Centre, the Art Gallery of Greater Victoria and the Royal BC Museum. Beautiful Beacon Hill Park is a short walk away if you want some time to process what you are learning.

Change is a constant in the museum world; this year's sessions will examine how museums adapt and embrace that change including big-picture sessions on changing relationships, and nuts and bolts on collections de-accessioning (the hardest change!). Conference 2017 also builds on the Rod Naknakim Declaration from last conference with themes of reconciliation and Indigenous engagement. There are sessions for our GLAM partners as well so you will have a chance to talk with your library and archives colleagues.

Senator Pat Bovey will kick off conference with a glimpse into what the future of the sector might hold – this is a great opportunity to imagine conference at our next big milestone – 75 years of BCMA!

A big thanks to our Conference organizing committee: Tania Muir, Erika Stenson, Dr. Scott Marsden and Peter Ord. As well, a huge thanks to Alyssa Polinsky and the staff of the BCMA for pulling this all together.

Welcome to BCMA Conference 2017 in our beautiful capital city

The Inn at Laurel Point on Victoria's Inner Harbour is our home for Conference 2017. We are grateful for the gracious welcome extended by the Songhees Nation, for the support of the Robert Bateman Centre and the Royal BC Museum, and to the member galleries and museums that look forward to your visit, and to the Inn at Laurel Point for making your stay enjoyable.

New this year, a self-directed Museum and Gallery Crawl is generously supported by local BCMA members. You'll find a list at the back of the program and we encourage you to visit as many as possible on Friday, or on the weekend if you're staying in Victoria a bit longer. Many are open throughout the week if you have some spare time during the conference. Hang onto this program as you'll need to present it with your delegate badge to receive complimentary admission.

Also new this year, we've developed Birds of a Feather groups for those with common interests who want to meet over a meal or a pint. Sign-up sheets are at the registration desk.

Conference Registration Desk Hours

Tuesday, Oct 3, 2:00 – 7:00 pm

Robert Bateman Centre, 470 Belleville Street

Wednesday, Oct 4, 6:30 am – 6:00 pm

Inn at Laurel Point, 680 Montreal Street

Thu, Oct 5, 7:30 am – 6:30 pm

Inn at Laurel Point, 680 Montreal Street

BACK BY POPULAR DEMAND!

Owl's Bookstore

Although owl-knapped from Conference 2016 in Whistler and unable to preside personally, Owl presents his 3rd annual book sale throughout the Conference.

Located adjacent to the Conference registration desk at the Inn at Laurel Point, Owl's Bookstore features non-fiction books of interest to our museum and gallery community. You may find your next treasure here!

Softcover books are just $2, and hardcover books are $5, unless otherwise marked. All proceeds go to the BCMA.

Thank you to everyone who donated books to Owl's Bookstore!

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Opening keynote breakfast with Senator Patricia Bovey, FRSA, FCMA

The Future of Museums

Pat was appointed to the Senate of Canada in November 2016 representing Manitoba. She is a Winnipeg-based gallery director and curator, art historian, writer, professor and, for many years, a management consultant in the arts and not-for-profit sector.

Formerly the Director of the Winnipeg Art Gallery (1999-2004) and the Art Gallery of Greater Victoria (1980-1999), Pat was appointed Director Emerita of the Winnipeg Art Gallery in 2014. She was a founder of the Buhler Gallery at St Boniface Hospital, serving as Director/Curator from its 2007 inception to December 2016. She was also a founder of the University of Winnipeg's Manitoba Arts and Culture Management Program, and MA in Curatorial Practice; the British Columbia Government House Foundation; and the National Fundraising Society (NSFRE) Vancouver Island Chapter. She is Adjunct Professor of Art History at the University of Winnipeg, and from 1995-1997 was Adjunct Professor in the School of Public Administration at the University of Victoria. She writes and lectures widely on Western Canadian art.

The recipient of the 2015 Winnipeg Arts Council Investors Making a Difference Award, Pat's many honours include her appointment as Fellow of the UK's Royal Society for the Arts, and as Fellow of the Canadian Museums Association; the Canada 125 Medal; the Queen's Golden Jubilee Medal; Winnipeg's 2002 Woman of Distinction for the Arts; the Canadian Museums Association Distinguished Service Award; the Royal Canadian Academy of Arts Medal; and the 2013 Association of Manitoba Museum's inaugural Award of Merit.

Senator Bovey's presentation is generously sponsored by the Department of Art History & Visual Studies and the Faculty of Fine Arts at the University of Victoria, as part of the Fine Arts Orion Lecture Series.

Closing keynote breakfast with Karen Aird

President, National Indigenous Heritage Circle

Miyowihciyitowin: Moving Forward and Building Better Relationships

Of Saulteau (Treaty 8 BC) and Scottish ancestry, Karen Aird has worked as an archaeologist and Cultural Heritage Planner for the past 25 years. Karen has led many projects that convey a strong Sense of Place in landscapes and spaces, encompassing Indigenous stories, legal traditions and the intangible and tangible elements into cultural heritage planning. In 2016, Karen took on the role as the President of the national Indigenous Heritage Circle, a non-profit Indigenous led and designed, volunteer organization that is based in Ottawa and Kamloops and focuses on creating a voice for Indigenous people on all issues related to heritage. She is also a board member for ICOMOS Canada. Karen is currently the project coordinator for Tk'emlups te Secwepemc's Cultural Heritage Study, and works as a cultural planner for the development of a cultural centre at Tse'K'wa, the Charlie Lake Cave site, located in Treaty 8 territory of BC.

Karen Aird's presentation is generously sponsored by the Cultural Resource Management Program at the University of Victoria.
