

Standard	Evaluation	Ranking
A reciprocal and respectful relationship building approach. 	Novice: Museum has not met the standard. Museum provides little evidence of meeting the performance expectation or learning goal. The Museum has not yet connected with local Indigenous groups or has only connected with singular ‘representatives’ of Indigenous groups and has not yet made contact with the greater community.
	Approaching: Museum is approaching the standard. Museum demonstrates partial mastery of the standard. Certain staff or departments are spearheading relationship building with various Indigenous Community members.
	Proficient: Museum has met the standard and demonstrates mastery of the standard. Truthful and heartfelt relationship building where most members of your organization are involved in relationship building with a diverse group of members from local Indigenous community(s). Budgets and timelines are adaptable.
	Advanced understanding: Museum exceeds the standard and demonstrates exemplary understanding and implementation of the standard. Truthful and heartfelt relationship building, where every member of your organization is involved in relationship building. A relationship forward approach to timelines and budgets. Relationship between the Museum and local Indigenous community that recognizes Indigenous peoples as key rights holders in which they are an integral part of decision making processes.
